

Diseased

Infected with the truths
Twisted and turned to festering wounds
The love you crave
Murdered—sent to the grave
Tortured soul is never good enough
Affection and love pushed out as a puff
Of smoke from your lungs
Mutated lies hang from your tongue
Lips turn blue
Screaming—I don't need you!

Return

Broken inside
She lets no one see
The truth revealed—which shattered her dreams
And now falling to the floor are particles of dust—which are what remain of her broken heart

The wind carried her dust
And she breathed her last breath
Her soul ascended
Her body lain to rest

Her voice now sings as wind rolling over the hills
Her tears now fall as rain from the clouds
Her hair is the branches
Which push her song
Her skin is the sand
That he lays his head upon

Last Time

Last time—
This is the last time I fall prey to your lies
Last time—
This is the last time I am so you can be satisfied

Last time—
This is the last time I listen to your geyser of words
Last time—
This the last time that I am hurt

Last time—
This is the last time that I play this one-sided
Last time—
This is the last time, for your affection, I feel slighted

Life and Love

Life is never as we plan
Mistakes are weaved
Regrets are worn
The human side won't allow us to forget
The soul we have allows us to cry—to feel
The human side is jealous
The soul cries tears of blood
The human holds a grudge
The soul wants only to be loved

Why must it be so hard to want something someone else does not?
Or is it the soul just wanting to love?

Love is a bad word
Love is angry
Love is jealous
Love is not what it should be

Life and love are the same
You can't have one without the other

Spider

You spin me
In your web of lies
I'm your prey
You suck me dry

My heart that is
It's dry and cracked
You've fed from me
And there is no looking back

Spin, spin, spin
Until it stops

My heart is dead
Lips are locked
Eyes closed tight
Hands to chest
Lower the casket
Let me rest

Forget

Help me to forget
This cold pain that
Is the truth

The truth that says
"You mean nothing to me" and
The one that says
"I never loved you"

Help me to forget
The painful memories we share

The ones where we kissed and hugged and
The ones where you said
"I'll always be here"
